FACTS

14. On or about and after May 25, 2011, Plaintiff obtained a copy of her credit reports with Experian, Trans Union and Equifax and learned that each were reporting a mortgage delinquency that did not exist.

15. On or about June 10, 2011 Plaintiff forwarded a written dispute letter to Experian, Trans Union and Equifax regarding the inaccurate mortgage account reporting within her credit report with Flagstar. Plaintiff enclosed a copy of a loan modification she received from Flagstar and proof of payments made pursuant to the agreement.

16. The Flagstar reportings were false. The Plaintiff had reached an agreement with Flagstar where she was provided a loan modification of her mortgage in September 2009. The Plaintiff dismissed a lawsuit captioned Sandra J. Berrios v. Ist Principle Mortgage, LLC, et al., Civil Action No. CL08-12312 in Fairfax County Circuit Court, where Flagstar was a Defendant.

17. Since that time, Plaintiff had always paid her monthly mortgage payment to Flagstar in accordance with loan modification she received as part of the settlement of the lawsuit.

18. Plaintiff, through her counsel, forwarded a written dispute of the alleged default to Flagstar on or about September 17, 2010, disputing that she was in default of her mortgage payment obligations and disputing her payments pursuant to the loan modification were being applied properly.

19. Flagstar did not respond to this correspondence.

20. On or about May 31, 2011, after receiving notice that her home was in foreclosure, Plaintiff forwarded another written dispute that she is in default of her mortgage obligations and requested that Flagstar correct this information on her account.

21. Flagstar has not responded to this correspondence.

22. On or about June 27, 2011, Trans Union responded to Plaintiff's dispute by advising that the Flagstar account had been "verified".

23. On or about June 29, 2011 Equifax provided its Investigation Results that stated that the Flagstar account had been "verified" as having a zero balance and referencing a loan that was closed in 2009, not the mortgage loan at issue in the June 10, 2011 correspondence from the Plaintiff.

24. On or about July 6, 2011, Experian provided its Investigation Results that stated that the Flagstar account had been "verified".

25. On or about July 13, 2011 Plaintiff forwarded another written dispute letter to Equifax regarding the inaccurate mortgage account reporting within her credit report with Flagstar. The Plaintiff requested that another investigation take place. Equifax has not responded.

26. In the July 13, 2011 correspondence the Plaintiff again referenced the September 9, 2009 loan modification, provided a copy of the agreement, and provided copies of all payments she had made under the loan modification. The Plaintiff has made all payments pursuant to the terms of the loan modification agreement and Flagstar has accepted those payments.

27. Again, Defendants each received, but ignored the Plaintiff's disputes and did refuse to delete the inaccurate information regarding the mortgage account from the Plaintiff's credit file.

28. Defendants each had actual knowledge of these inaccuracies and deliberately chose to ignore and permit the reporting of the inaccurate account.

29. After receiving Plaintiff's notices of the inaccuracies and within the two years preceding the filing of this action, Experian Trans Union and Equifax each prepared and published to third parties multiple inaccurate consumer reports about Plaintiff which contained the inaccurate derogatory accounts.

30. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that on one or more occasions Experian Trans Union and Equifax each forwarded Plaintiff's disputes to Flagstar. Upon information and belief, Flagstar was provided notice of Plaintiff's disputes and despite this notice, each failed and refused to investigate and correct its inaccurate reporting.
